It is difficult to calculate upon the results of the coming year for our wool and tallow in so distant a market as that of England, even upon it as it ever is by so many unforeseen acts, but it would appear scarcely possible that a lessened export and a demand increasing beyond our power of supplying it, with an increased cost of production, can do otherwise than tend to favorable prices. The cheapness of money and the impetus which is given to the value of every article, are also circumstances which are a fair ground also for believing that our production will be, in the general advance, the more especially when it is considered that the very causes which have given cheapness to money are those which have rendered the producing of our staples so much

PARRAMATTA DISTRICT.
HIGHLY IMPORTANT SALE OF SUPERIOR HORSE STOCK.

MR. J. F. STAFF has been honoured with instructions from H. B. Beresford, Esq., of Bangorah, to offer for public competition, on MONDAY, 27th

On TUESDAY, 28th December next, to commence at 11 o'clock each day,

The whole of that gentleman's superior Horse Stock, comprising about 70 head, including brood mares, cart horses, saddle horses, gig and carriage horses, horses fit for racing, and others, broken to lead.

These horses have been bought out of the late Belford stock, the property of C. Bury, Esq., of Calcutta, by the present proprietor, at a very high average rate, but selected with great care for their beauty, bred, size, and bone. The Belford stock was under the management of R. B. Dawson, Esq., for upwards of twelve years, and the original stock

The late proprietor some £60 per mare, chiefly from the Glendon stud, besides the importation of the best Arab and English blood. The stud was sold not long since by Mr. Mort, under the direction of Captain Scott, attorney to the late proprietor.

The intention of the present proprietor was to have continued on a small number of the best mares; but in consequence of Mr. Claver, of Syracuse, having become the purchaser of Bungaroe, and requiring immediate possession, combined with the probability of the departure of the owner for Calcutta, this select property is now offered to the public.

About 30 head of cattle, among which will be found milch cows, heifers, and 30 steers fit
